How was the life of Martin Luther King Jr. affected by Christianity?

Before MLK Junior became a civil activist, he was a minister. He never abandoned his faith, and drew on it for courage in challenging times.

MLK Junior felt that Jesus was the inspiration behind a violence-free movement. He used Jesus' line of "Love your enemies," by explaining, "If you hate your enemies, you have no way to redeem and to transform your enemies."

How was the life of Betty Greene affected by Christianity?

Betty Greene was a pioneer missionary pilot.

Betty had a desire to fly but also an ambition to serve Christ as a missionary.

In 1941, Betty's flying skills were in demand. America's entry into WW2 caused a need for trained pilots.

Her flying allowed her to help those less fortunate, as well as doctors, patients, aid workers, and transporting medicine and equipment. Which she believed was God's way of helping people without Christ.
