

What is it like living in England?

1. Where is Morden?

- The United Kingdom consists of four countries: England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.
- The capital city of England is London.
- We live in a town called Morden which is part of the London Borough of Merton.

2. What is the difference between a town, a city and a country?

- Country: an area of land with boundaries which fits within a continent. It is a body of land with its own government.
- City: huge "urban" place, with lots of tall buildings very close together and millions of people live there.
- Towns: smaller than cities with a less people but bigger than a village.

3. What can I see in England?

There are lots of different things to do and see in England because there are beaches, coastlines, forests, busy cities and towns, as well as the countryside to explore.

4. Where would you like to live in England?

There is a variety of places to live in England. You can live in rural or urban areas or on a coastline. There are similarities and differences between all of these which we will explore.

Key words

- United Kingdom- made up of 4 countries.
- London- Capital City of England
- coast- land near the sea
- forest- a large area covered with trees
- Rural- characteristic of the countryside
- Urban- characteristic of a town or city

