Success Criteria

Watch how I would edit this writing to meet the succ criteria.

The Breathtaking Hot Air Balloon Journey

From high up in the sky, I saw the most amazing sights. My heart was at peace and I couldn't believe how calm I was to be on this journey. After I had drifted away for a while, I came across a beautiful sight. Down below, I saw snow-capped mountains and a thick layer of fog. It was so thick, I couldn't even see the ground. Then in the clearing, I saw a grassy field that stretched slowly towards the trees. My balloon drifted gently and that's when I noticed the blanket of ice-cold snow quiet, bare, deserted, that hugged the land.

Include double or triple adjectives, separated by a comma for some of the expanded noun phrases

I realised that I have used double adjectives but I haven't used 3 adjectives to describe a noun so I want to do that for the noun 'land'. So I will up-level my writing by adding these 3 adjectives.

A range of sentence openers like: From high above..., After we drifted for hours..., When I looked down..., The sights below...

The Breathtaking Hot Air Balloon Journey

Although I have used some different sentence openers,, I think I could replace 1 or 2 others.

As I rose up in the sky, I saw the most amazing sights. I felt at peace and I couldn't believe how beautiful it was to be on this journey. After I had drifted for a while, I came across a beautiful valley. Slowly, I saw snow-capped mountains covered in thick fog. It was so thick, I couldn't even see my own hands. Then in the clearing, I saw a small path that led to a lake. Quietly, my balloon... I walked slowly towards the trees. My balloon heated slowly and that's when I noticed the blanket of pure white, ice-cold snow that hugged the land.

Fog enveloped me because it was so

Quietly, my balloon...
