

Carnival of Animals

How do religious people show they belong to a community?

1. What does it mean to belong?

Belonging means to feel part of something. You can belong to a community such as your family, school, religious group, clubs etc. How does this make you feel?

2. How do we show we belong?

Some clubs or groups require us to wear uniforms/ badges or have a symbol/ emblem to show this.

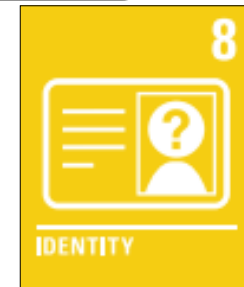

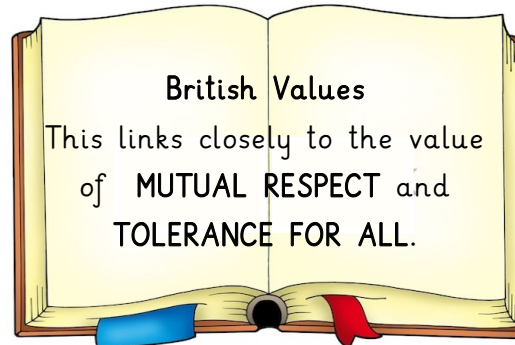

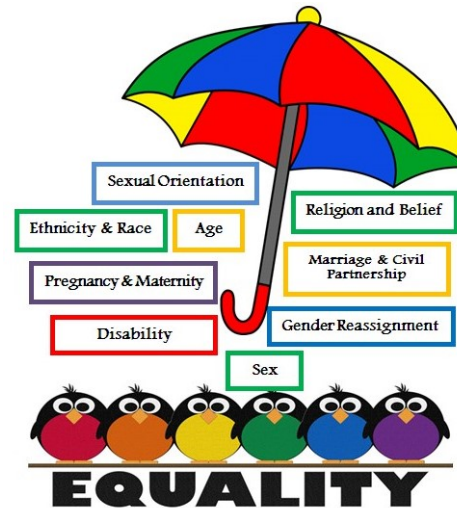

3. How do religious people show they belong to a community?

Sometimes they wear special clothes to show they belong to their community. Religious clothing could include robes, turbans, hats and shawls. Accessories could include wedding rings, crucifixes etc.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

4. How do we welcome someone new into our group?

Different groups or clubs invite individuals to make a pledge or promise in order to welcome them into their community.

Key Vocabulary

beliefs	a feeling of certainty that something exists, is true, or is good community	a group of people who have things in common culture	the traditions and beliefs that are practised in people's daily lives
values	the beliefs that each person considers are important for themselves and possibly for humanity as a whole