

Hillcross Primary History Curriculum

	Year 1			Year 2
Topic	Autumn 1: A change over time	Spring 1: A Step in Time	Spring 2: Very Victorian Values	Autumn 2: Hearts and Lanterns	Spring 2: Disaster Strikes	Summer 2: Whole School Topic
NC knowledge and understanding	British history - changes within living memory	British history - significant historical places in their own locality.	British History - events- the Factory Act (1874 Amended from 1833) beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally	Wider world History - the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements.	British History - events- the Great Fire of London (1666) beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally.	Wider world History - the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements.
Historical contexts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> social short term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> local/ regional social short term timescale (100 years) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national social political long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> international social military short term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> local/ regional context social short time scale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> international political cultural long term timescale
Historical concepts ➤ Continuity & change ➤ cause & consequence ➤ similarity, difference ➤ Significance Use these concepts to: make connections, draw contrasts, analyse trends, frame historically	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Similarity and difference Be aware of the past, using common words and phrases Identify similarities and differences Understand some ways we find out about the past Fit people into a chronological framework	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cause and consequence Be aware of the past, using common words and phrases Understand some ways we find out about the past Ask and answer questions Fit events into a chronological framework	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Make connections Be aware of the past, using common words and phrases Identify similarities and differences Understand some ways we find out about the past Fit people into a chronological framework Ask and answer questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cause and consequence Similarity and difference Be aware of the past, using common words and phrases relating to time Fit people/events into a chronological framework Choose and use from stories or other sources to show understanding Identify similarities and differences	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cause and consequence Drawing contrasts Significance Fit events into a chronological framework Use wide vocabulary of everyday historical terms Identify different ways in which the past is represented	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Similarity and difference Drawing contrasts Make connections Fit people into a chronological framework Identify similarities and differences
Interpretations of history 	To use a range of sources (pictures, toys and books) to compare their lives to their grandparents.	To understand how we gather information from artifacts	To ask questions using who, what, when and why.	To ask and answer questions related to stories or other sources from the past.	To use sources from the past (objects, artifacts, videos) to gather information to answer given questions. To interrogate differences between given sources.	To ask and answer questions using sources from the past.

Chronological knowledge and understanding 	To understand changes in living memory. Talk about past and present events in their own lives and lives of their family members.	Identify changes to Morden over time.	To make comparisons between now and the Victorian time period (1837-1901). (link to thinking maps) To plot when they were born, 100 years ago when they looked at Morden and when the Victorian time period began onto a timeline.	To plot when Florence Nightingale was born and relate this to the Victorian period and when they were born. To map out significant events in the Crimean War.	To plot when the Great Fire of London started and compare this to Crimean War, the Victorian time period started, Morden 100 years ago and themselves on a timeline.
Significant events, places and people	To learn about themselves and their grandparents as significant individuals.	To learn about significant places in Morden (Merton Abbey Mills/Morden Hall Park, Deen City Farm, Tube).	To understand the Factory Act and its impact on children's lives during the Victorian period.	To learn about the significance of Mary Seacole and Florence Nightingale.	To learn about the significant event of The Great Fire of London. To learn about the significance of Samuel Pepys.	To learn about Nelson Mandela and Mary Wollstonecraft and the connection between the two significant individuals.

Hillcross Primary History Curriculum

	Year 3			Year 4
Topic	Autumn 2: Rotten Romans	Spring 1: Settle Down	Summer 1: Dig Deep!	Autumn 1: Walk like an Egyptian	Spring 1: Battle Stations	Summer 1: Playing Cat and Mouse
NC knowledge and understanding	British History- the Roman Empire and its impact on Britain	British History- Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons focussing on art and culture	British History- changes in Britain from the Stone Age to the Iron Age	Wider world History- an in depth study of the achievements of the earliest civilizations	British History- the Viking and Anglo-Saxon struggle for the Kingdom of England to the time of Edward the Confessor	British History- a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066
Historical contexts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national cultural political social long term timescale (400 years) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national cultural social long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national cultural religious social long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> international cultural social religious long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national military Political (democracy) long term timescale (300 years) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national political economic social history short term timescale.
Historical concepts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Significance Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Make connections Frame historically valid questions Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving some reasons for this (differing reason as to why the Anglo Saxons came to Britain)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Make connections Drawing contrasts Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections and contrasts Establish clear narratives within and across periods studied (produce a piece of a text)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Frame historically valid questions Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms. Establish clear narratives within and across periods studied (produce a piece of a text) Understand how knowledge from the past is constructed from a range of sources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Make connections Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections within other periods of time (Anglo Saxons and Normans) Contrast informed responses by selecting and organising relevant historical information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cause and consequence Significance Frame historically valid questions Make connections (links to Victorians) Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Understand how knowledge of the past is constructed by a range of sources
Interpretations of history.	To use 2 or more different sources or media to piece together information about a chosen time period. 	To interrogate and evaluate differences between given sources. Investigate the impact of Anglo Saxons in Britain.	To recognise the role of archeologists. To draw parallels and bring together sources to be able to infer what life may have been like to build up their own interpretation of a period of time. To compare changes in Britain from the Stone age to the Iron age.	To investigate primary and secondary sources and explain the differences between these two types. To use Howard Carter's diary entry to gather information about what he found. To understand who the Egyptians were, how they live, what their biggest achievements, what they believed in, why are they still significant?	To interrogate and evaluate, drawing parallels and bringing together sources to be able to infer what life may have been like. To understand how the Vikings raided and invaded.	To understand that primary sources hold a greater significance than secondary sources. (Propaganda) To understand what the Suffragette movement was. To explain the significant turning point that the Suffragettes had on British History then and how it has impacted life today. To understand what Parliament was like during the Suffragette movement.

Chronological knowledge and understanding	To continue to plot where these significant people/ events/ places occurred on a timeline. To order the events of history with the given dates and to use both AD and BC on a timeline.			To continue to plot where these significant people/ events/ places occurred on a timeline. To order the events of history with the given dates and to use both AD and BC on a timeline.
Significant events, places and people	To learn about the significance of the Roman Empire in Britain.	To learn about the significance of Anglo Saxon art and culture.	To learn about Stonehenge and its importance to society during that time period.	To learn about the significance of the Pyramids and Tombs.	To learn about the significance of Edward the Confessor and 1066. To learn about the significance of the Battle of Hastings.	To learn about the significance of the Suffragette movement.

Hillcross Primary History Curriculum

	Year 5			Year 6
Topic	Autumn 2: Third Rock from the Sun.	Spring 1: It's all Greek to me	Summer 1: Marvellous Mayas	Autumn 1: Everybody wants to rule the World	Spring 1: War of the Worlds	Summer: 1 Game, Set and Match
NC knowledge and understanding	British History- a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066. Focussing on a significant turning point in British History.	Wider world History- a study of Greek life and achievements and their influence on the western world	Wider world History- an in depth study of a non-European society that provides contrasts with British history Linking the Ancient civilisation of the Maya to the modern day Maya. How are their lives the same? How are their lives different? Talk about the impact of Tourism. Talk about geographical similarities and differences between then and now.	British History- a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066 focussing on crime and punishment changes in an aspect of social history, such as crime and punishment from the Anglo-Saxons to the present.	British History- a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066	British History- a local history study of an aspect of history or a site dating from a period beyond 1066 that is significant in the locality
Historical contexts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national political social short term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> international cultural political long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> international cultural religious Social long term timescale (then and now) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national political religious social long term timescale 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> national international political social short term timescale (40 years) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> local economic social history short term timescale
Historical concepts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Cause and consequence Significance Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Devise historically valid questions Develop appropriate use of historical terms Construct informed responses by selecting and organising relevant historical information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Significance Make connections to other time periods Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections between other time periods Establish clear narratives within and across periods studied (produce a piece of a text) Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving some reasons for this	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Significance Make connections Drawing contrasts Continuity and change Similarity, difference Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections and contrasts Construct informed responses by selecting and organising relevant historical information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Similarity, difference Make connections Drawing contrasts Analyse trends Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections and contrasts and trends over time Understand how knowledge of the past is constructed from a range of sources Construct informed responses by selecting and organising relevant historical information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Cause and consequence Frame historically valid questions Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Devise historically valid questions Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving reasons for this (propaganda) Establish clear narratives within and across periods studied (produce a piece of a text)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Continuity and change Similarity, difference and significance Frame historically valid questions Continue to develop a chronologically secure knowledge of history Develop appropriate use of historical terms Note connections and contrasts and trends over time (the tournament and the environment as a whole) Devise historically valid questions Use historical terms and concepts in increasingly sophisticated ways (In preparation for KS3) Understand how different types of

						sources are used rigorously to make historical claims (In preparation for KS3)
Interpretations of history. 	To use a wide range of sources to devise their own historically valid questions. To understand how the British Space Program influenced space travel.	To investigate and understand two different versions of a similar event and compare and contrast these. To understand what Greek life was like. To understand the legacy of Greek culture in the western world.	To begin to understand source bias. To comment on the reliability of sources and how it may impact the validity of a source. To understand how the Mayan civilization has changed over time.	To be able to gather information from a wide range of sources. To be able to explain the roles of crime and punishment. To use a wide range of sources to devise their own historically valid questions.	To select which sources are most relevant with varying opinions. To understand how World War 1 began. To understand how trench warfare changed how future wars were fought. To understand the link between World War 1 and World War 2. To understand how World War 2 impacted on everyday life.	To consider different ways to check and evaluate the reliability of different sources which may be bias. To carry out a local history study. (based on Wimbledon tennis) To know connections, contrasts and trends over time. To understand how the Wimbledon Tennis Championship has had an impact on the local area. (Links with Geography.)
Chronological knowledge and understanding	To continue to plot where these significant people/ events/ places occurred on a timeline. To order the events of history with the given dates and to use both AD and BC on a timeline.			To continue to plot where these significant people/ events/ places occurred on a timeline. To order the events of history with the given dates and to use both AD and BC on a timeline.
Significant events, places and people	To learn about the significance of Helen Sharman and Tim Peak	To learn about the significance of Plato. (Linked to Hillcross house)	To learn about the significance of the Maya civilisation and how it has changed over time.	To learn about the significance of crime and punishment throughout the ages.	To learn about the significance of The Treaty of Versailles.	To learn about the significance of Spencer Gore, Maud Watson, Suzanne Lenglen and Fred Perry.